Please have battery operated lights or lanterns if you will be open after dark on Saturday. Electricity is not provided.

Insurance/ Indemnification: Vendors must carry their own coverage. All Vendors must include TRRF, The Yuma County Fairgrounds and their agents, and employees under any existing insurance policy. Vendors must obtain a rider from their insurance company naming TRRF, the Yuma County Fairgrounds, their agents and employees as co-insured's. As contractor, vendors, performers and all participants agree, by accepting this agreement, regardless of coverage under any insurance policy, to pay all costs necessary to indemnify, defend and hold TRRF., and the Yuma County Fairgrounds harmless from all claims, demands, actions, attorney's fees, costs and expenses based on or arising out of any acts, errors, omissions, fault, or negligence of contractor or its principals, employees, subcontractors or other agents while performing services under this contract. All participants agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, TRRF., the Yuma County Fairgrounds, and any of their sponsors, officers, employees, and agents from any loss, theft, damage or injury to any person or property during the event.

Decency: TRRF. will not allow the sale of merchandise that offends community standards or depicts or suggests illegal drug use or related paraphernalia. TRRF. has final say as to the appropriateness of all merchandise. Non compliance will result in immediate expulsion.

Fire Inspections/Fireproofing: All vendors will be required to have a fire extinguisher with a minimum rating of 2A10B:C and it must have been serviced within the last year by a licensed state fire protection company. Each extinguisher will bear a tag with the servicing information. Vendors using any type of frying appliance, including commercial grade deep fryers, woks, pots, etc., will need a K class fire extinguisher in addition to a C class.

Cell Phones: In order to maintain the proper atmosphere and create the best experience possible for all, cell phones must be out of sight and earshot during show hours.

Permits: Vendors are required to obtain, and submit copies to TRRF, all necessary permits on site in order to operate on the festival grounds. If you are forced to close by any government agency for failure to obtain, or comply with, proper and necessary permits/licenses, TRRF, The City of Yuma, and the Yuma County Fairgrounds are not liable for vendor's losses. TRRF will not refund fees.

Sales Tax: All vendors are responsible for keeping track of their sales and paying Arizona State Tax. A list of all vendors will be submitted to the Arizona Department of Revenue following the event.

Alcohol/Controlled Substances: The sale of alcoholic beverages is strictly licensed and controlled. Alcoholic beverages will only be available at the Pub. No other sale of alcoholic beverages will be permitted. Under no circumstances are any controlled substances allowed on the festival site. Anyone with controlled substances in their possession on the show site is subject to immediate expulsion. A zero tolerance policy will be in effect.

Animals: No pets. Only hired animal acts and service animals allowed.

Water: Potable water will be accessible.

Set Up/Tear Down: All vendors will be set up and ready for business by the scheduled gate opening, (10:00 am) Friday morning. Vendors will be allowed onto the grounds starting 8:00 am Thursday. All vendors are to vacate the park grounds by 12:00 noon Monday. Vendors are allowed to camp on the grounds for the duration of the event. All modern tents set up on site will be in tent city. All vehicles are to be removed from field to vendor parking areas

Business Structures/Participant Costumes: Vendors must provide their own tents, tables, chairs, shade cover/tent, lights, etc. Booths regardless of type, must have the look and feel of structures of the Renaissance period. Pop-ups must have all modern looking metal, inside and out, covered with fabric or other covering. For all first time applicants, a photo of your booth must accompany this application. TRRF. is the final judge of appropriateness. Participants shall be in Renaissance, pirate or faerie garb. and should at all times strive to emulate the speech and mannerisms of the European Renaissance time period, or pirate and fantasy environments.

Security: Security will be provided for event. Notwithstanding, this is not meant as a guarantee. TRRF., the Yuma County Fairgrounds, their sponsors, officers, employees, and agents are not responsible for any loss, theft, damage or injury to any person or property.

Returned Checks: Any checks submitted to TRRF. that are returned by the bank for insufficient funds will be run the maximum number of times allowed by the bank. If the check still does not clear, a $35 dollar fee in addition to any bank fees, will be attached to the account of the sender.

Inclement Weather/Acts of God: By signing this document, parties agree that in the event of inclement weather, natural disaster or act of God, TRRF will be responsible only for the return of booth fees and only if the entire three day event is cancelled. Two Rivers Renaissance Faire is scheduled to be open rain or shine.

Weapons: All weapons must be sheathed or holstered at all times. Any person found brandishing a weapon other than for a scheduled performance or re-enactment will be subject to immediate expulsion. All vendors selling weapons must provide string or ribbon for peace-tying and will advise customers to keep all weapons peace-tied.
